

Weekly Safety Meeting Care for the Injured

Date:	Jobsite:

The following points should be covered on how to care for the injured after a careful review of your Emergency Procedures. Guide for Discussion Determine the seriousness of the injury: #*Serious: Contact Emergency Response Team(s). Do not move the injured person. Get First Aid trained person shanding. In case of bleeding—apply pressure to the wound. Do not use a tourniquet except in cases of excessive bleeding. If the injured person has stopped breathing, get someone who has been trained in CPR o help restore the breathing. Try to keep the injured person has stopped breathing, get someone who has been trained in CPR o help restore the breathing. ### Non-Serious: Contact the supervisor immediately. Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other tems to be Aware of. Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. "Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job?" The First Aid kit is kept where? The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:	Discussion London	Summary
Attendance Sign- In: Determine the seriousness of the injury: If Serious: Contact Emergency Response Team(s).	Discussion Leader:
Determine the seriousness of the injury: #/ Serious: Contact Emergency Response Team(s). Do not move the injured person. Get First Aid drained person from standing. In case of bleeding—apply pressure to the wound. Do not use a tourniquet except in cases of excessive bleeding. If the injured person has stopped breathing, get someone who has been trained in CPR o help restore the breathing. Try to keep the injured person warm. #/ Non-Serious: Contact the supervisor immediately. Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other Items to be Aware of: Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. - Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? - The First Aid kit is kept where? - The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures: - Remember		, , ,
Contact Emergency Response Team(s). Do not move the injured person. Get First Aid trained personnel assistance; ask them to help. Keep the injured person from standing. In case of bleeding—apply pressure to the wound. Do not use a tourniquet except in cases of excessive bleeding. If the injured person has stopped breathing, get someone who has been trained in CPR o help restore the breathing. Try to keep the injured person warm. ## Nan-Serious: Contact the supervisor immediately. Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. ### Other Items to be Aware of: Report all Injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. #### Additional Discussion Notes: #### Company Emergency Procedures: including location of nearest telephone. 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. #### Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? The First Aid kit is kept where? The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? ###################################	Attendance Sign- In:
Contact Emergency Response Team(s). Do not move the injured person. Get First Aid trained personnel assistance; ask them to help. Keep the injured person from standing. In case of bleeding—apply pressure to the wound. Do not use a tourniquet except in cases of excessive bleeding. If the injured person has stopped breathing, get someone who has been trained in CPR o help restore the breathing. Try to keep the injured person warm. If Nan-Serious: Contact the supervisor immediately. Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other Items to be Aware of: Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. - Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? - The First Aid kit is kept where? - The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
Do not move the injured person. Get First Aid trained personnel assistance; ask them to help. Keep the injured person from standing. In case of bleeding—apply pressure to the wound. Do not use a tourniquet except in cases of excessive bleeding. If the injured person has stopped breathing, get someone who has been trained in CPR o help restore the breathing. Try to keep the injured person warm. If Non-Serious: Contact the supervisor immediately. Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other Items to be Aware of: Report all linjuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; Including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? - The First Aid kit is kept where? - The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
Get First Aid trained personnel assistance; ask them to help. Keep the injured person from standing. In case of bleeding—apply pressure to the wound. Do not use a tourniquet except in cases of excessive bleeding. If the injured person has stopped breathing, get someone who has been trained in CPR o help restore the breathing. Try to keep the injured person warm. If Non-Serious: Contact the supervisor immediately. Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other Items to be Aware of: Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; Including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. - Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? - The First Aid kit is kept where? - The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional Information on Emergency Procedures:
Keep the injured person from standing. In case of bleeding—apply pressure to the wound. Do not use a tourniquet except in cases of excessive bleeding. If the injured person has stopped breathing, get someone who has been trained in CPR o help restore the breathing. Try to keep the injured person warm. If Nan-Serious: Contact the supervisor immediately. Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other Items to be Aware of: Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? - The First Aid kit is kept where? - The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures: Remember	,
In case of bleeding—apply pressure to the wound. Do not use a tourniquet except in cases of excessive bleeding. If the injured person has stopped breathing, get someone who has been trained in CPR o help restore the breathing. Try to keep the injured person warm. If Non-Serious: Contact the supervisor immediately. Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other Items to be Aware of: Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. - Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? - The First Aid kit is kept where? - The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
If the injured person has stopped breathing, get someone who has been trained in CPR o help restore the breathing. Try to keep the injured person warm. If Non-Serious: Contact the supervisor immediately. Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other Items to be Aware of: Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. - Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? - The First Aid kit is kept where? - The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures: Remember
Try to keep the injured person warm. If Non-Serious: Contact the supervisor immediately. Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other Items to be Aware of: Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? - The First Aid kit is kept where? - The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
If Non-Serious: Contact the supervisor immediately. Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other Items to be Aware of: Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. - Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? - The First Aid kit is kept where? - The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
Contact the supervisor immediately. Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other Items to be Aware of: Report all Injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. - Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? - The First Aid kit is kept where? - The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
Do not try to get the injured person to move if a fall is involved. Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other Items to be Aware of: Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job?
Get any First Aid treatment that may be needed. Be sure you know the location(s) of the nearest First Aid kit on the job. Other Items to be Aware of: Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. - Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? - The First Aid kit is kept where? - The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
Other Items to be Aware of: Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? The First Aid kit is kept where? The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures: Remember
Report all injuries—even minor ones may become major ones. Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? The First Aid kit is kept where? The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
Seek first aid for even minor injuries. Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? The First Aid kit is kept where? The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
Be sure the emergency telephone numbers and the location of the nearest cross street are posted in a conspicuous place on the job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? The First Aid kit is kept where? The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:	, job. Know them. Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? The First Aid kit is kept where? The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
Additional Discussion Notes: Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? The First Aid kit is kept where? The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street. •Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? •The First Aid kit is kept where? •The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job? The First Aid kit is kept where? The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures: Remember
The First Aid kit is kept where? The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures: Remember		—— Company Emergency Procedures; including location of nearest telephone, 911 or other system, and nearest cross-street.
The First Aid kit is kept where? The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures: Remember
The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures: Remember		-Who is/are First Aid/CPR trained on the job?
The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is? Additional information on Emergency Procedures: Remember
Additional information on Emergency Procedures: Remember		• The First Aid kit is kept where?
Additional information on Emergency Procedures: Remember
Remember		• The Supervisory person to contact on all accidents/injuries is?
Remember
		Additional information on Emergency Procedures:
		—
		—
		[]
		Remember
		Be sure to review the locations of First Aid kit(s) and emergency numbers on the jobsite.