

Weekly Safety Meeting What Does An Accident Cost?

Date:	Jobsite:
-------	----------

Discussion Leader:	Summary
Discussion Leader:	Every accident has something in common: It costs everyone involved something. There are direct and indirect costs, both to the Attandance Cinn Inc	employee who was injured and the employer who eventually will pay for the accident. The costs are more than dollars.
Attendance Sign- In:	Guide for Discussion
	Employee Direct Costs
	Lost regular wages and overtime
	Employee Indirect Costs
	Mental anguish, physical pain and suffering
	 Decreased active participation with their family and friends (It's tough to be at a ball game when laying up in a hospital bed) Inability to be productive on or off the job
	Employer Direct Costs
	Workers' Compensation claim
	Medical bills
	Associated legal and possible increased insurance costs
	Uninsured property damage costs
	Employer Indirect Costs
	Loss of valuable employee with a result of lost efficiency on the job
	Managerial and clerical time expended to handle injury claims
	Time loss wages paid with no work performed
	Hiring and training replacement
	Damaged or destroyed equipment, materials or tools
	Additional Discussion Notes: Can you think of any other costs?:
	Can you think of any other costs::
	Remember
	The indirect (or hidden) cost in an accident is between three and ten times the actual cost of the claim. But it is not the costs, direct or indirect, that totals the most. More often than not it is the loss of a valuable co-worker or member of a family that causes the most problems for our company.
